Performance Marketing professional with 7.5 years of experience helping B2B SaaS and B2C brands scale revenue through data-backed growth strategies. I take full ownership of the digital growth engine - from website design and technical/international SEO to paid acquisition and conversion rate optimization - ensuring every touchpoint is built to convert. I collaborate closely with content writers and business stakeholders to turn keyword research, positioning, and user intent into high-performing landing pages and campaigns that generate qualified leads. With hands-on expertise in Google Ads, Meta Ads, LinkedIn Ads, analytics, tracking implementation, CRO, and AI-powered marketing workflows, I focus on improving lead quality, lowering customer acquisition costs (CAC), and delivering measurable ROI.
